

presents, in cooperation with the Centre for Banking, Finance and Sustainable Development, University of Southampton, and the Association for Research on Banking & the Economy

The Linacre Banking Seminars

Banking and Sustainability

Michaelmas 2016

17:30 to 19:00 hrs.

Tanner Room, Linacre College

(with the exception of the first seminar on 14 October, to be held in Room 13, Said Business School)

Convenor

Professor Richard A. Werner, D.Phil. (Oxon) (Linacre, Southampton)

Date	Speakers	Topic
Fri, 14 Oct. Rm13 Said B.S.	Richard Werner Chair in International Banking, University of Southampton	Do banks create money out of nothing? The theories & the evidence
Fri, 21 Oct.	Saker Nusseibeh, Chief Executive, Hermes Investment Management	Can finance contribute to environmental sustainability?
Thu, 27 Oct.	Sir Vince Cable, former Secretary of State for Business, Innovation and Skills	What's wrong with UK banking?
Fri, 4 Nov.	Richard Werner	Banking and law: Is banking legal?
Thu, 10 Nov.	Richard Werner	Banking, ethics and sustainability
Fri, 18 Nov.	Gaston Reinesch, Governor of the Central Bank of Luxembourg	Monetary policy in theory and practice
Fri, 25 Nov.	Richard Werner	Banking & development: Washington Consensus vs. sustainable growth
Fri, 2 Dec.	Baron Karl-Theodor zu Guttenberg, former Minister of the Economy & Defense, Germany	From the Medici to Bitcoin: The past and future of correspondent banking
Fri, 9 Dec.	Richard Werner	Economics as if banks, people & resource constraints mattered

Sponsored by:

