Friday 27th September

9.00-15.30: Facoltà di Lettere e Filosofia, Città Universitaria – Aula Odeion

Bridging Cultures. Common grounds for science and humanities, in the century of C.P. Snow’s ‘Two Cultures’.

The Conference is a joint initiative of Scuola di specializzazione in beni archivistici e librari – “Sapienza” Università di Roma, and Linacre College. Details will be forwarded separately.

16.45 Meeting at Piazza SS. Apostoli 66

17.00 Private visit of Princess Isabelle Apartment in Palazzo Colonna

Here the Colonna Princess preserves the apartment formerly used by Princess Isabelle exactly as it was when she was still alive. In the apartment, you can find the same warm atmosphere, the same attention to detail and care to keep the family photos where they were originally placed, next to the famous collection of thirty-seven views of Vanvitelli. In one of the grandest palaces of the world, there is a gallery just as marvelous as the great halls of Versailles.

Entrance ticket: € 25,00 p.p. – Guided visit € 10,00 p.p.

Total cost € 35,00 p.p.

18:30 End of the visit and walking transfer to the restaurant

10.00-11.15 - XX Italian Linacre Lecture: Robert Fox, "The Two Cultures at Sixty"

11.30-12.30 - Italian Linacre Society General Assembly

15.15 Meeting at Piazza San Luigi dei Francesi, 37

15.30 Private visit of Palazzo Patrizi Montoro

Built at the end of ’500 by the Aldobrandini family who ordered the actual facade to the famous architects Carlo Maderno and Giacomo della Porta. In 1642 the building passed to the Marquis Patrizi, the current owners, originally from Siena but strictly related with many Roman famiglie. During the XVII century Marchesi Patrizi did significant changes to the building, which have contributed to the current structure. All the rooms are furnished with XVII and XVIII century furniture and host a collection of paintings, made at the beginning of XVII century by Costanzo Patrizi treasurer of Pope Paul V Borghese. Palazzo Patrizi is still the residence of the homonymous family and Marchese Corso Patrizi will welcome you.
17.30 Visit of the Church San Luigi dei Francesi

Church to Rome’s French community since 1589, this opulent baroque church is home to a celebrated trio of Caravaggio paintings: the Vocazione di San Matteo (The Calling of Saint Matthew), the Martirio di San Matteo (The Martyrdom of Saint Matthew) and San Matteo e l’angelo (Saint Matthew and the Angel), known collectively as the St Matthew cycle.

Entrance ticket to the palace € 23,00 p.p. – Guided visits € 10,00 – Earphone system € 2,00

Total cost: € 35,00 p.p.
